"Pa. You're a Philosopher," Says Novelist's Wife, and

There You Are.

William M. Fuller, Deputy Clerk of the Court of Special Sessions and father of Mrs. Upton Sinclair, returned to his duties to-day after a vacation of six weeks, spent in the forests along the shores of Hudson Bay.

Mr. Fuller met his daughter, for the first time since her separation from her bushand, at his home, No. 176 West Eighty-seventh street, last evening. Since the publication of the interviews with her concerning her domestic affairs Mrs. Sinclair, who is now living , with her parents, has been bombarded with letters from all over the country. Some writers have praised her, others have insulted her.

At first Papa Fuller refused to-day to scuse the breach between his daughter and her hosband.

"I'm all at sea on this proposition," he said. 'I arrived in New York only last evening from the wilds of Northern Ontario. I'd rather talk of wolves and SHOT DAUGHTER bears, and tell you something about the SHOT DAUGHTER remarkable engineering work of beavere. Say, I was laying for a timber wolf and"-"Oh, about my daughter? Well, she's a remarkable young woman—a thinker and philosopher. She is sweet and lovable by nature, but with deep-seated con victions and the moral courage to maintain them.

"Anyhow if she and Upton agree to disagree it's up to them. As my daughter said to me last evening:
""Pa, you're a philosopher, thank "I'll Do Like That," Said Fath-

to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Scottville, Mich.—"I want to tell you how much good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me. I live on a farm and have worked very hard. I am forty-five years old, and am the mother of thirteen children. Many people think it strange that I am not broken down with hard work and the care of my family, but I tell them of my good friend, your Vegetable Compound, and that there will be no backache and dragging pains for them if they will take it as I have. I am scarcely ever without it in the house. it in the house.
"I will say also that I think there is no better medicine to be found for young girls to build them up, regulate, and make them well. My eldest daughter has taken the Compound for painful, irregular periods, and it has always helped her.

"I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Lydia E. Pinkham's Remedies. I tell every one I meet that I owe my health and happiness to these wonderful medicines."—Mrs. J. G. Johnson, Scottville, Mich., R. F. D. 3.

When shown such positive and reliable proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound really does cure such cases wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering the same?

MORE GENUINE AND CONVINCING PROOF:

Elwood, Ind.—"I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. I tried doctors, and they said I could not get well without an operation. I could hardly stand the pain, but my right side was the worse. I couldn't sleep at night, and I was troubled with a weakness.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle, but I kept on until I was cured."—Mrs. Sadie Mullen, 2728 N. B. Street, Elwood, Ind.

What more proof can any one ask?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to berself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
